

Tata Capital screened over 2 lakh individuals under Project Aarogyatara: A primary eye care initiative
Aarogyatara gears up to cover more than 5 lakh individuals in the next 3 years

Mumbai, May 22'2023: Tata Capital, the financial services arm of the Tata Group, has launched Project Aarogyatara- an initiative to eradicate curable blindness through inclusive primary eye care facilities. The purpose is to improve eye health of low-income group families, help diagnose eye disorders, provide timely treatment and increase awareness about regular eye check-ups. The project has been successfully implemented in the states of Maharashtra, Bihar, UP, Tamil Nadu and Karnataka.

Tata Capital, under Project Aarogyatara has partnered with six NGOs in five years and has facilitated more than 23,000 cataract surgeries. The project provides support to diagnose and treat refractive errors through community mobilisers and healthcare workers.

Project Aarogyatara has impacted:

- Over 2 lakh individuals screened for eye related ailments.
- Over 1600 camps conducted
- Of the people screened, more than 9900 people were provided with spectacles.
- Conducted over 23,000 cataract surgeries

Speaking about Tata Capital's CSR initiatives, Sridhar Sarathy - Chief Ethics Officer and SVP- L&D, Engagement and CSR said, "We are committed to giving back to the communities we serve. Access to healthcare services is a basic human right, and we are proud to be able to help underprivileged individuals who may not have access to quality eye care. We are expanding this initiative to cover another half a million people in the next 3 years. Our commitment to strengthen availability and accessibility of quality eye care for the local communities will continue grow."

About Project Aarogyatara

To ensure quality preventive healthcare to fight against curable blindness, Project Aarogyatara has been launched. The initiative was met with an overwhelming response from the community and people benefiting from the camps. Tata Capital plans to continue its CSR initiatives and contribute towards creating a better and healthier society.
